A PLAIN STATEMENT.

The recent sermon on Miscegenation by Dr. John Alex. Dowie, has brought to a head a purpose, for some time working in my mind, but unfurl led, to make clear my own position, without outraging truth.

That sermon has greatly increased my difficulty in laboring among my own Southern people, in removing unfounded prejudice against the Leader in Zion.

It is a curious anomalous position in which I find myself to-day, as discredited by Zion—under the personal displeasure of her God-appointed commander: Yet, although enduring no small persecution on account of it, proclaiming everywhere, "from the house tops," Jno. Alex. Dowie as the 2d "John the Baptist" and the 3d Elijah, predicted by Malachi of the O. T. and by our Savior in the New. (See Mat. IV:5 and Matt. XVII:10-13.)

Of all who share His confidence and favor, among the many thousands of his followers, I doubt if there is one who has come as near to "suffering the loss of all things," for His sake and the "Gospel of the Kingdom," as the man who is under his ban, as an apostate.

This requires a candid explanation, which I now propose to give. It is known to many, and I wish it known to "all whom it may concern" that 13 months before Dr. Dowie proclaimed himself as "Elijah," in the presence of 7,000 people, gathered in the great "Auditorium" in Chicago, I had proclaimed him as such in a two column article in the Stanford "INTERIOR JOURNAL."

This was before I had either seen, written to or communicated with Dr. Dowie in any way whatever; and simply on my own personal conviction from reading my Bible and comparing my Savior's prediction (Matt. XVII:10-13) with the facts of the wonderful things God had wrought through the instrumentality of his favored servant.

All the world knows how the larger announcement on the 2nd of June, 1901, was received by those who had not read their Bibles, and who simply received the proclamation with a stare of astonishment, followed by howls of laughter and derision, and those who knew enough of Scripture to recognize that there was something in the claim, for various reasons set themselves, resolutely, to discredit his mission.

With all these attempts, honest or dishonest, (and for virulence and venom there have been few cases in the churches' history to furnish parallels) I have nothing to do here.

My wife and I joined the "Christian Catholic Church" July 20, 1900. Its creed is simplicity itself, as written; offering no barrier to entrance that would halt any Christian in seeking to share its fellowship. In May, 1901, I was ordained as Elder in that church.

Several months before, in declining to take the position of "conductor," in the little band of Zionites, in Washington City, where I then resided, I wrote, at length, to Dr. Dowie, stating my convictions on certain points of Doctrine and Practice that clashed with what he taught, so there was nothing hidden, or evaded in the matter from first to last. He knew all my difficulties, but we both hoped that in the sphere of duty to which he wished to assign me, in his college, these points might never crop out to interfere with my new role of labor. I now know, that such a hope was entirely illusory, and that before three months of my professorship had been passed, I should have been removed from it "for cause," which is the formula of decapitation in Zion, where particulars are suppressed for the general welfare.

But before the College opened, I had received a clear "call" from God to do the work in which I am now engaged. Without conferring with "flesh and blood" I came from Zion City to do it. For a few weeks, I preached under the auspices of Dr. Dowie's general overseership, and forwarded my reports to him, but was soon made to understand that there could be no "call" recognized, unless it came through the only authorized leader at Headquarters. This brought the question to a head at once. Dr. Dowie wanted me at Zion City. God wanted me in Kentucky. I had no alternative and I "obeyed God rather than man," however honored or exalted. There was no "rupture" then but only "strained relations."

Very soon in my preaching a "full gospel" I crossed the track of Zion's published teaching. I couldn't avoid it and be true to what I thought God had taught me. Then I resigned my "Eldership" for I had no right to bear office and oppose the accredited teaching of the man who had ordained me. There was but one honest course, unless I renounced the truth, as I saw it. Then as I felt that there was great incongruity in belonging to a church, whose "general overseer" was not allowed to oversee me, I resigned my membership in the "Christian Catholic Church in Zion."

Of course this was trying to "the flesh" I cut myself off from association with dear people, whose good opinion I craved and whose love I valued, and I did not regain the love and esteem of the old friends who dropped me when I became a "Dowieite;" because I held with unabated fervor of belief to the reality of the Doctor's mission, as the forerunner of our Savior and the authorized beginner of the "Times of Restoration of all things spoken of by the Holy Prophets since the world began."

This I have proclaimed with all the power given me in all the counties of Kentucky thus far visited, where they have had the religion to hear me; three counties out of 48 refused me a hearing. "I pray God it may not be laid to their charge." But the other 45 have listened patiently. If I am spared to go to the other 71, it will be my joy to proclaim John Alexander Dowie as the Elijah of whom Jesus spoke, Matt. XVII:10-13.

While I do this, what ever it costs, it is not the main object of my mission. That is to save souls. I remain seven days in each county seat and preach eight sermons, seven on soul saving. The 8th is devoted to Zion and a vindication of J. A. D.'s claim to the office of "Elijah." I think the people thus far understand the relative importance of the subject and listen patiently to No. 8 for the sake of the vital point of cleavage between the doctor's teaching and mine, touches the orthodox belief that God permits evil, which is a relic theology to which he clings tenaciously. To me it is "rank blasphemy," whosever holds it. I assert that there can be no permission without approval, and that makes God the author of sin.

Therefore I have persistently and consistently fought it since leaving the old Presbyterian church over 30 years ago. I am willing to risk my soul that it is a falsehood of the devil. I couldn't put it stronger than that. But a holding on to the rags of a false theology, or, even granting all the lies told by a venal "press" to be true (of which we know are "cut out of whole cloth") still his claims to be "Elijah," the "Restorer of all things," are not invalidated. When I see what God has wrought through Dr. Dowie and look the world around to find a man who can stand beside him without being dwarfed, I fail to discover him. He is "the greatest born of woman in his generation," as the 1st John the Baptist was in his, and both made so by being energized by the Spirit and power of Eliseh, as was Eliseh 2,800 years ago. On how true is God to those who serve Him. To make Abraham the "Father of the Faithful," for all time; and Elijah, the "Prophet of the ages," because they stood for God when he had few friends on earth.

And this, in turn, does not prevent the other fact, that "Elijah," 1st, 2nd and 3rd were men subject to like passions as we are, (James V-7.) That covers the whole ground of alleged inconsistencies of character that men seize hold of and magnify till the good that is done is quite lost sight of. People are simply astounded when I tell them the other side, for the newspapers never print the good, only the evil. And the reason people listen so patiently to the 8th sermon, is the fact that their consciences are pricked, to think that they have not investigated, but have formed hasty and uncharitable, opinions. Any really good, honest hearer feels that way.

It would swell this paper to too great a length to enlarge upon points where I think the Lord has taught me differently from Dr. Dowie. We are both fallible men, though he be great and I small. The point with his people is in making a Pope of him.

But I must say a word in refutation of his sermon on Miscegenation, that will make my task of defending him so much harder. The two pillars of his argument, Jachin and Boaz are the assertions that both Joseph and Moses married Negroes. In reply I answer: 1. Dr. Dowie and I are both descended, lineally, from "Aenath, daughter of Potipharah, Prince of On;" thro' Ephraim or Manasseh. He believes that and preaches it. The fact is that the reigning and ruling class of that era were pure white, as much so as that the reigning power in India is that of the white race. We have the mummy of the Pharaoh of "Exodus" on exhibition. I have seen the photo of the face. The nose is pronounced Roman, such as never was "grown" by a Negro since their race began.

2. Joseph, "2d only to Pharaoh," married a patrician's white daughter. His progeny was white, as we, their lineal descendants are. The doctor hasn't a leg to stand on in Joseph.

3. Moses married an "Ethiopian woman" and Aaron and Miriam demurred. The story is narrated in Numbers XII. She is nameless, but there is not a scintilla of proof that she was a Negro. It is not told where Moses married her. Aaron and Miriam were jealous of her influence over Moses and raised a feeble revolt. Now Moses had married Zipporah, a girl of Median, presumably white. Jethro brought her and his two sons to camp, as they touched his principality. She appears no more in the history. Probably he was a widower when he married the "Ethiopian" or Cushite. "Cush" means "black," I know. But that is a word of territory, meaning "lands of blacks." The rulers in all these countries were white. The "Queen of Sheba," a descendant of Shem, though "Queen of Ethiopians" or Cushite. The Eunuch under order of Candace (Acts VIII an Israelite) also presumably white, and so on. Now remember that Moses was her presumptive to the throne of Egypt, as adopted "son of Pharaoh's daughter," and entitled to wed with the loftiest in the land. He could not have married a plebeian. He was an "aristocrat of aristocrats." The great likelihood (in absence of proof on either side) is, that he loved a patrician maid of Egypt and when his wife died, she joined him in the wilderness and became a partner in his wanderings.

This reads a little romantic, but if his wife had been a Negress more than Aaron and Miriam would have been heard from among that blue blooded race. Even Joseph's children had to be publicly owned by Jacob before his death, not because they were mulattos, but because they had the blood of alien stock in them; though the best in Egypt and the proudest. No nation on earth was so exclusive as the Israelites. Witness the Jew of to-day, declining to intermarry and we their blood brethren, though unknown by them, have the same pride of lineage—instinctively and unconsciously the same.

The point is this—absence of proof of the doctor's position, with probabilities all the other way. "Cush" is territory, not color. The reigning family in China is Tartar—but they pass for Chinese because in China. But I must leave this with its unbroken probabilities to the Israelitish instinct of the Anglo Saxon. That will settle it. God prohibits mixtures and the Jew under the law obeys. We under grace obey the God implanted in us. GEO. O. BARNES.

LANCASTER.

John F. Lear has accepted a position as drug clerk in the store of Eph Lillard at Danville. As Mr. Lear has been a resident of Lancaster for several years, his many friends dislike very much to see both him and his wife leave.

The friends of Mr. James McCarley are grieved to hear of his death at his home here Tuesday. Mr. McCarley was deputy assessor of this county and had always taken a leading part in politics. He was buried here on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Ethyl Dunn has returned from a long visit to relatives in Middlesboro. The friends of Miss Willie Belle Borside are glad to know that her health is much improved and that she is out again. Miss Bettie West entertained the Junior Club at her home Thursday evening.

A terrible accident happened to the seven-year-old daughter of John Goodloe. She was standing near an open grate when her dress caught fire and although she was severely burned, her life was saved by her 10-year-old brother, who smothered the fire out. The boy's hands were badly burned.

While Woods Walker was hauling fodder in a field near his home Tuesday, his team of mules became badly frightened, ran over a high precipice and fell into a rock quarry. Both mules were instantly killed and he saved his own life by jumping from the wagon when it was only a few feet from the precipice.

The Africa Minstrels will make their first appearance at the court house on Dec. 22. With the possible exception of the circus, there is no more popular form of amusement furnished all classes of people than a good clean minstrel show, and it is claimed by good judges that the Africa Minstrels has been brought up to the standard. The show has several splendid singers, of note not only from our own community, but three of the best black faced comedians in Central Kentucky. All the features to be introduced are the newest that can be obtained.

The Lancaster Athletic Association has made arrangements to rent the grounds back of the College campus for an athletic park during the ensuing year. Citizens of the county who wish to encourage the boys in manly sports are taking great interest in the matter. One section of the field will be used by the tennis club, another will be "skinned" for a base ball park and a third is to be laid off for a grid-iron for foot ball next fall. A grand stand and bleachers will be built for the spectators at the upper part of the ground. If the Stanford boys wish to contest with the Lancaster boys in any of these sports, 'tis time for them to begin practicing in order that they may even score in the game.

MILLIONAIRE'S POOR STOMACH.—The worn out stomach of the over fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaires unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over 35 years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottles 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

Praise For Dr. Hickie.

Dr. W. F. Hickie closed his second term of school at Crab Orchard last Friday, much to the regret of many of his pupils. Last and this year's school's were the best taught at this place for several years. He has refused the place for a third year as he will not teach any more, but practice medicine. If he makes as good a doctor as he has a teacher, his name will be a watch-word in every household for the next half a century. Our good wishes go with him to his new field of labor. A PUPIL.

A Frightened Horse

Running like mad down the street dumping the occupants, or a 100 other accidents, are every day occurrences. It behooves everybody to have a reliable Salve handy and there's none as good as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Burns, Cuts, Sores, Eczema and Piles disappear quickly under its soothing effect. 25c. by all Druggists.

There are 300,000 books in the homes of colored people, and they own and publish 450 newspapers and magazines.

The St. Louis Globe Democrat will never be able to establish a reputation for itself as a successful political proph et. When it declares that the "demo cratic party makes a shameful con fession that there is only one political party in the United States," and then concedes that "only one" to be in the republican party, its predictions con cerning the result of the pending pre sidential contest have about as much relative value as a dam in the middle of a desert. It will shortly have to sing to a different tune and its gya rations at times will be worth watching.

D. C. EDWARDS, of London, has no tified Dr. Hunter in Washington that he will contest the seat now held in Congress by Dr. Hunter. Fraud and force are alleged. Dr. Hunter says he is glad Mr. Edwards is going to contest, claiming it will give him a chance to expose rascality. Probably the contest will prove which "gentman" is the larger rascal.

It is now an admitted fact that both Cleveland and Bryan are out of further consideration at the hands of the dem ocracy, and while both may be prop erly eliminated as even remote presiden tial possibilities, it is none the less true that they may be duly relied upon to support the democratic nomi nee.

THE President's nomination of S. Stanfill to be postmaster at Williams burg has been held up in the Senate at the request of Dr. Hunter. Stanfill was recommended for appointment by Commissioner Yerkes and is person ally obnoxious to the Congressman.

It is more than likely that the new city council of Lexington will increase the saloon license from $75 to $250, says a dispatch from there. This will close up a number of suburban groggeries, something the Lexington Democrat has made a hard fight for.

THE democrats won by an over whelming majority in the municipal election in Boston, the majority for Patrick Collins being 27,000, the larg est ever given a mayoralty candidate in that city.

POLITICAL.

Commissioner Yerkes says Kentucky is for Roosevelt for renomination. Wm. C. Douglas has been appointed postmaster at Jellico and George W. Hutchinson at Lawrenceburg.

The House adopted a concurrent res olution providing for a recess adjourn ment from December 19 to January 4. The Virginia House of Delegates has passed a bill appropriating $10,000 for the Virginia building at the St. Louis Exposition.

At a meeting of the Indiana State Democratic Committee at Indianapolis, Thomas Taggart was endorsed for chairman of the national democratic committee.

A Washington newspaper says the Kentucky delegation in the national democratic convention may cast its vote on the first call for Gov. Beckham for President.

The Senate passed the bill carrying into effect the Cuban reciprocity treaty. The vote was 57 to 18. Senator Bailey, during the debate which preceded the vote, served notice on the republican side that hereafter the democrats will vote as a unit.

The democratic Congressional caucus adopted a resolution declaring that caucus action of the party hereafter should be binding. During the discus sion it developed that enough demo cratic Senators would vote for the Pan ama treaty to insure its ratification.

CRAB ORCHARD.

The clever cashier of our bank, Mr. Mason Morris, has his wife as his as sistant now.

The Aid Society of the Christian church met at Mrs. Kate Egbert's Monday afternoon.

Rev. Farris preached two interesting sermons at the Christian church Sun day. One confession.

Miss Ethel Bastin braved the chilly blasts of last Sunday by being baptized in the lake near the Springs Hotel.

Miss Sallie McWhorter is visiting relatives at Paint Lick. Wade Per kins returned to his business near Nashville Tuesday.

Mrs. Joe Pleasants' private school closes this afternoon for the holidays. The five month's session taught by Dr. Fickie closed last Friday.

Mrs. Mollie Borders visited Mrs. Robert Collier at Brodhead. Heath Willis was host at a very enjoyable re ception at the Springs Hotel Friday evening.

The box supper given at White's school house was a success in spite of the rain storm and nearly $10 was realized from the sale of boxes. There was a pie-eating contest at the same place Wednesday evening; a prize being given to the one eating the most pie, one to the prettiest girl and ugliest man.

Dr. W. F. Phillips is in Louisville attending the medical lectures. He will take the full course. Miss Pearl Collier entertained the "Jolly Young crowd," of Slaterville, a few evenings ago and Mrs. Martha Fish entertained them Friday evening. Col. W. G. Welch was a guest at the Gover Hotel last week. Will and Joe Brooks, two of our popular Knights of the Grip, spent Sunday with the homefolks. Misses Lizzie and Mattie Beazley of Lancaster, spent Sunday with friends here. Dr. James Guest, of Louisville, made a brief visit to his parents here. Miss Fish, of Wildie, was a guest of Mrs. Patten. Luther Smith, wife and pretty baby, of Mt. Vernon, were with friends here. Mrs. Smith was formerly pretty Miss Lockie Dillon, of this city. Mr. J. C. McWhorter is out again after a very severe illness.

SOMERSET.

We have a set of new councilmen for the ensuing year and much is expected of them.

Reva. McIntyre, McMahan and Shad oon went to Louisville this week to at tend the Pastors' National Convention.

A very interesting meeting has just closed at the M. E. church, having been conducted by Evangelist Taylor, of Knoxville.

Our thoughtful mayor has prohibited the shooting of fire crackers and torpe dos on the streets, an ordinance that larger cities might adopt with profit to the younger set especially.

The handsome millinery store room of Miss Mollie Newman, located on Main Street, was considerably dam aged by fire Monday night. The stock of millinery goods, valued at $1,800, was a total loss. There was insurance of $800.

The different Sunday schools will ob serve Christmas with a Christmas tree by each school. A veritable Santa Claus will greet the pupils at the Christian church on Thursday night. The ladies of the Christian church will give an oyster supper at the court house to-night, Friday.

The corn show window of the Somer set Journal office is a surprise in the great variety and superior quality of the cereal. The blue grass has no mar gin to boast of, showing that the blue clay of Pulaski is equal in fertility to that boastful region. We have fine specimens of aluminum and in earnest search of radium also. There's no tell ing the possibilities awaiting this mountain country, with her glistening sands, nodding pines and cedars like unto Lebanon, and crystal waters gurg ling from fountains. Pegasus must have had a slip from these limpid life giving waters.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Berry Howard killed a black bear near Pineville.

Jack Freeman, a Richmond mer chant, dropped dead of apoplexy.

A little child of Mr. Hubbard, living near Pineville, was fatally burned by falling in the fire.

It is stated in Washington that John W. Yerkes will not be tendered the presidency of Central University.

Robert Marlow is in jail at Williamsburg charged with assault on Thomas Cavius at Jellico. Cavius will die.

J. T. Eason, of Danville, who had a leg crushed by the Q. & C., has been paid $3,500. The company also pays the doctor's bills.

Gov. Beckham has appointed Virgil P. Smith, of Pulaski county, to act as special judge in some Knox county cases in which Judge Faulkner has inter ested relatives.

The Sunday closing law was observ ed here, says a Middlesboro dispatch. Not a drop could be had for love or money. This is the first time the sal oons have been closed on Sunday since the town was founded.

Mrs. Sallie E. Sampson, aged 67, died at Junction City Tuesday. One son and three daughters survive her, W. L. Sharp, of Junction City, Mrs. W. D. Hall and Mrs. J. J. Tallock, of Louisville, and Mrs. Wells, with whom she lived.

The suit of the Southern Railway against A. W. Eastland for the right of way through his farm in Boyle, was compromised. The compromise was effected by paying Mr. Eastland $5,000, settling all court costs and agreeing that the railroad should build Mr. East land two crossings and erect fences along the right of way.

THE TRUST.

Now what availeth
Time's thin disguise,
If reason faileth
And fond hope dies—
They yet shall wonder
Who work and wait
The meaning under
The will of fate.

Why should we hasten?
The way is long,
And love will chasten
A life of song:
So let's be merry
And brave it out;
We may not tarry,
We must not doubt.

Enough is given
For strength of soul
Till time is riven
And truth made whole.
'Tis not for grieving
We can not know—
Ourselves receiving—
God made it so.

DON'T delay getting some of that Stanford Souvenir Chiusa as it is going fast and can not be duplicated. W. H. Mueller.

B. W. GAINES had two fingers cut off while working with a hay baler Wednesday. Dr. Carpenter dressed the wounds.

DON'T worry about what to buy for your friends this Christmas, but go to John P. Jones' store. You'll find what you want there.

CAMPBELL'S restaurant and confectionery is headquarters for Christmas candies, fruits, nuts, etc. See his stock before you buy.

THERE has been more or less snow on the ground for over a month and the oldest inhabitant does not remember a longer cold spell at this time of the year than the present.

THOSE desiring to purchase a home would do well to consult the Central Kentucky Real Estate Exchange & Title Co. We have several places for sale which are not advertised.

HIS many friends in this county were shocked to learn of the death of Mr. James McCauley, of Garrard. Few better men ever lived and those who knew him best admired him most.

SOME Smart Alec rang the fire alarm about 11 o'clock Wednesday night and some of the fire ladders responded. The boys who are doing such devilment had better stop before they become guests of Jailer Herrin.

THESE December days are so short that a fellow has to go to work early in order to eat three meals and draw his salary.

POTTER PRESS FOR SALE.—A seven column Potter Press for sale cheap. Is in good repair and does fine work. Call on or write to W. P. Walton, Lexington, Ky.

"LINCOLN county people seem to be getting blood-thirsty; entirely too many killings of late," writes an Atlanta friend of this paper. "You need a good hemp-stretching or two there," he adds.

THE splendid resolutions passed by the Danville bar on the retirement of Judge M. C. Sautley and Commonwealth's Attorney J. S. Owsley were crowded out this issue but will appear Tuesday.

THE Kentucky Central due here at 8:50 Tuesday night did not arrive until 6 Wednesday morning. Three cars left the track at Paint Lick and it took all night to get them back. Nobody was hurt.

FOR SALE PRIVATELY.—One of the very best homes in Stanford, nice dwelling, large grounds, an abundance of fruit and ornamental trees, out-houses, etc. For particulars address John P. Jones, Stanford.

KILLED.—Wm Nicholson, a freight fireman, was killed at Junction City. He was at work under his engine when another freight bumped into the caboose. The train was moved a car's length only, but the engine passed over Nicholson's body cutting him in two.

HELD OVER.—James Kennedy, who killed Will Holmes in the East End some two weeks ago, had his examining trial Tuesday and was held over till circuit court in $2,000. His brother, Ben Kennedy, charged with being an accessory, was held in $1,000. Both gave bond.

DR. STEELE BAILEY is in receipt of a letter from the Louisville Monthly Journal of Medicine and Surgery asking permission to copy the splendid death notice he wrote for this paper of Dr. Hawkins Brown. Permission was of course given and the half tone cut of the grand old man was sent to that publication.

"THE LAND O' COTTON."—Junker & Corcoran's beautiful play of Southern Life with its wealth of beautiful scenery and novel effects, its well defined story, its unique characters and carefully selected company offers an attraction of a different sort from the usual run of plays. The cast is unusually large and some ideas may be obtained of the mounting when it is stated that a special 74-foot baggage car is required to transport the scenery and effects. At Walton's Opera House next Wednesday night, Dec. 23.

FOUR SCORE AND ONE.—On Dec. 11, Mrs. Edna E. Hill quietly passed her 81 birthday. She was nicely remembered by relatives here and also received letters of congratulation and gifts from absent relatives. She enjoys fairly good health and is well-preserved for one of her years. The occasion was saddened by the absence of two grand-children, Dr. Walter Carter and little Margaret Hill, both of whom recently died of typhoid fever. Each devoted to the other and to Grandma, no one present seemed happier, more healthful and enjoyed her last birthday more than did they. Truly "In the midst of life we are in death."

BEEF FOR DOWRIES.—Mr. Thomas Metcalf, who moved to Zion City some months ago, has ordered shipped to that place two car-loads of exporters he left here to be fed. They are a good lot and will make much better beef than the average Kentuckian is used to. By the way, Mr. Metcalf is delighted with Zion City and her people and he thinks nothing is too good for the followers of Elijah the Second, as Mr. Dowle proclaims himself.

MR. M. is manager of the confectionery department there and has a number of clerks under his charge. He is a born merchant and Mr. D. could not have found a better man for the responsible position.

SEE our line of heating stoves. Something new in a hot blast. John Bright, Jr., & Co.

THE possessor's book in the county clerk's office is not used a great deal. Mr. Cooper was writing in it yesterday on page 78 and the book was begun in 1851. It is used where a dispute arises over the ownership of real estate and in it is kept the report of committees appointed by the county judge to settle the question of ownership.

KINGSVILLE.

Rev. R. H. Jones, of Lexington, will fill his last appointment for this year, next Sunday.

Dr. Walter, of Lancaster, spent several days here. Jerry Baker, of Burnside, has been spending some time here owing to a slight indisposition. Steve Reynolds, of the C. S., spent a few days with the homefolks here.

John Howe, our popular and efficient station agent for the past year, has resigned and will take a South-western tour with a view to locating J. Everett Creighton, the young operator of this place, is favorably located in an office at East St. Louis.

Great preparations are being made for the school entertainment Friday evening. Everyone is cordially invited to attend. Doors open at 7 o'clock. Master Russell Thompson has no intention of crying this time when he makes his address. He says he's "a big boy now."

Mr. W. L. McCarty has a decided acquisition at his store in his son Ed. The latter, who has been out West, is "at home" in the spirit of the word and is taking an active interest in his father's business affairs and is indeed proving a valuable assistant. He is a splendid salesman and his manners can not be improved upon. He is courteous to all, is quite accommodating and seems to have a surprising amount of patience.

Messrs. G. A. Walter, J. M. and W. L. McCarty, J. W. Thompson and Sam Rigney are all very busy and have fine Christmas stocks. Mr. Walter is being assisted by his brother, Wallace Walter, and his efficient young clerk, Edgar Rigney. Mr. J. M. McCarty is assisted by one clerk only, but manages to supply a full store of patronage. Messrs. Hester and Chevolette are doing well in their line. They keep a small but first-class restaurant.

HUBBLE.

Ed Miller has rented his farm to John Lovell. Dack Ball will move to Hedgeville.

Mack Eubanks and Sidney Dunbar filled their ice houses Wednesday with seven inch ice.

Eld. F. M. Tindler will fill his appointment at the Christian church Sunday afternoon.

Jas. McKechnie was called to Wayne to see his father, perhaps for the last time, as he has been at the point of death for some time.

On account of bad weather, Cox & Bourne, who went to Wayne county to buy turkeys, had to return with only 500. They found the birds scarce, but left enough for seed.

Miss Collette Floyd, of Ansel, is visiting Mr. J. F. Rigney and family. Mrs. Annie Holtzclaw left last week for Wyoming to spend several weeks. Miss Ethel Carman, of Campbell-Hagerman College, will return home Saturday to spend the holidays with her parents.

MATRIMONIAL.

Joe A. Myers and Miss Lillian Bybee were married at Richmond Wednesday.

John Farrell and Miss Mary Minor were married at Perryville yesterday.

Only one marriage license has been issued to white persons since Nov. 26 by County Clerk Cooper. Unless business in that line increases Old Santa won't visit his house very strong on Christmas eve night.

Mr. William Swope, of Fayette county, has announced the engagement of his daughter, Miss Martha, to Mr. William Loughbridge, of Lexington. The wedding will take place during the Christmas holidays. Miss Swope has many relatives in this county.

The court of appeals reversed the judgment of the Hopkins circuit court in the case of Garth Tompkins for killing James Brans.

Judge Hanson Kennedy is dead at Carlisle.

Whisky and Brandy.

I have a plenty of both for Christmas trade. Get my prices before you buy. J. H. Carter, P. O. Stanford, Ky.

Flouring Mill For Sale

I will sell cheap my flouring mill in Stanford. Will either sell for cash or exchange for farming land or town property. Mill is in good repair and fine running order. J. H. Carter, P. O. Stanford, Ky.

FORRENT.

My store-room, recently occupied by Wm. Severance. Will rent for one or more years. J. B. OWSELEY.

FOR SALE!

A Farm For Sale!

I will sell the farm known as the George T. McCormack farm on Hawkins' Branch, about 4 1/2 miles North of Stanford. Farm contains about 30 acres of land, house, barn, &c. Will give possession any time after 1st day of January, 1904. Any one wanting to buy a small farm please write or call and see me.

J. G. FRITH, Brodhead, Ky.

Agent for G. T. McCormack's heirs.

PUBLIC SALE.

Having sold my farm, known as the Spratt place, 1/4 mile from Walnut Flat Postoffice, I will sell at public auction on Tuesday, Dec. 23rd, all of my household and kitchen furniture, farming implements, 12-horse wagon, good survey and harness, 2 milk cows, 3 calves, 2 good mares in foal to jack, 2 brood sows, 15 shoats, No. 1 corn, 30 shocks of fodder, about 50 barrels of corn, lot of sheep, oats, ton of clover hay, stack of millet, 100 chickens and many other things. Terms made known on day of sale.

J. H. STEPHENS, Walnut Flat.

PUBLIC SALE.

Having decided to go West, I will sell at public auction at the John Hubble place near Turnersville on Wednesday, Dec. 23, the following described property: Good 4-year-old horse, mare and colt, splendid milk cow, yearling heifer wagon and harness, buggy, buckboard and harness, orchard, organ, cultivator, double shovel plow and plow gear, 80 chickens, lot canned goods, Irish potatoes, cabbage, household and kitchen furniture, etc., etc. Terms made known on day of sale.

work horses $40 to $100

LOST—A big sorrel saddle horse, 10 or 12 years old, without spots and about 15 1/2 hands high, heavy built, very good mane and tail. L. C. Rogers, Harrodsburg, Ky.

A $20,000 saddle will be exhibited in Mexico's display at the World's Fair.
It is the property of President Diaz, having been presented to him by Colonel Cortina of the Mexican army.

CLIMATIC CURES.—The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overrated. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectora-tion in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer clime, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles 25c; regular size 75c. At all druggists.

Revolution Imminent.

A sure sign of approaching revolt and serious trouble in your system is nervousness, sleeplessness, or stomach up-sets. Electric Bitters will quickly dis-member the troublesome causes. It never fails to tone the stomach, regulate the Kidneys and Bowels, stimulate the Liver, and clarify the blood. Run down systems benefit particularly and all the upper attending aches vanish under its searching and thorough effectiveness.
Electric Bitters is only 50c, and that is returned if it don't give perfect satisfaction. Guaranteed by all Druggists.

OLD BILLY BURCH.

Say, Davy, have yer heard the news
About old Billy Burch—
Yer haint? Well sir, it is a fac—
Old Billy's jined the church.
He went ter Fox Run meetin' house
Chuck full o' worl'y sin,
An' after givin' God his heart,
They tuck old Billy in.

Now that's a man that never cussed,
Nor 'buzed an' beat his wife;
He worked and allers paid his debts—
Wuz honest all his life.
His only fault wuz 'gittin' full,'
An' grey, so to speak;
He'd allers go off to git drunk
An' stay about er week.

Thar wuzent any harm to Bill—
He wuz a clever mac—
A fast-rate naber, but he lived
In life on Satan's plan
An' many years along the road
O' sinful life he trod,
Only be got ter thinkin' that
'Twuz time to think o' God.

Bill riz' up in the meetin' house
The night his sine all fled,
An' lookin' at the people thar
With tremblin' voice he sed:
"My friends, I've cum ter jine yer flock
O' sinful life he trod,
Only be got ter thinkin' that
'Twuz time to think o' God.

Thar wuzent any harm to Bill—
He wuz a clever mac—
A fast-rate naber, but he lived
In life on Satan's plan
An' many years along the road
O' sinful life he trod,
Only be got ter thinkin' that
'Twuz time to think o' God.
